To the Board of Governors,

I wish to apply for membership of the Guild of British Camera Technicians and confirm that my work brings me into physical contact with moving image cameras. I confirm that I am willing to comply with the Terms of the Constitution (available on request from the office or online at www.gbct.org), and that I am willing to actively support the objectives of the Guild.

I agree that the information provided in this application may be confidentially shared with Guild Members who are on the Board or who form part of a Selection Committee for membership. If invited to become a member, I also agree that my name and contact details can be used in the dissemination of information and publication of GBCT material. In compliance with the provisions of the current GDPR/ GBCT Members Privacy Policy, I therefore give my permission to the Guild of British Camera Technicians to publish my name, contact details, technical grade and Curriculum Vitae as they appear in the Guild's Databases / Directories as submitted by me and approved by the Board of Governors. This also includes any updated information I provide in future.

I enclose the following as part of the application process and understand that any incomplete documentation will render this application invalid:

- Completed and Signed application form which also contains
- Names & contact details of my referees and confirmation of any recognized Diploma qualification if reqd.
- An up-to-date copy of my CV which provides dates of when the work was undertaken

(NOTE: On acceptance to join the GBCT, I also agree to pay a fee of £65, due on invoice. This is a one-off members' payment for the GBCT Welfare Fund. Further details on request.)
